

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

Fiba Portföy does not offer investment recommendations via digital platforms and networks, nor does it request fund transfers to any account through shared IBANs via individuals claiming to act on behalf of our company or its employees.

Recently, malicious actors may attempt to initiate contact by utilizing our company's title and logo without authorization. It is of utmost importance to remain vigilant against such attempts.

Within this scope:

- Strictly refrain from executing transactions with individuals or accounts requesting fund transfers on behalf of our company.
- Do not disclose your personal information, account details, or passwords to third parties.
- Do not click on suspicious links alleged to be sent on behalf of our company.

Pursuant to capital markets legislation, investment transactions are executed solely through authorized institutions and official channels. For your security, we strongly request that you only use our company's official communication channels.